

Sausalito Woman's Club SCHOLARSHIP RECOGNITION FUND

Annual Report: July 1, 2019 – June 30, 2020

Our annual report is meant to thank all of you who have supported scholarship in the year just past and in years before. Many of you donate to the Scholarship Recognition Fund every year and this results in the board's ability to continue to award sizable scholarships to students in the Marin City and Sausalito School District.

The annual report also describes what happened in the past year. In the fall we had a stupendous and timely fashion show "Trash'n Fashion—From Throwaway to the Runway" which brought students from the Academy of Art and Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising (FIDM) in San Francisco. Fashion Coordinator, Sallie Huntting opened the show, with a fact filled talk on pollution and waste in the fashion industry. Clothing was created and designed from recycled clothing or everyday objects. The award-winning design was constructed of the bowls of plastic spoons. The spoons looked like white flowers. Jean Spaulding conceived the idea and coordinated the students and the show with the help of Elizabeth Sealey and Paula Fancher. The show was a sell out and the talk of Sausalito.

Even though COVID prevented the Board from meeting in person, we continued our work of choosing scholars via Zoom. A first and hopefully a last for us. COVID also caused the cancellation of the heartwarming Awards Program usually held the first Sunday in June.

In June the SWCSRF awarded $56,000 to 19 scholars. Scholarships were awarded in honor of Dawson Zaug (Charlotte Lee) Shannon Bell/Nancy DeBruyn, Michele & David Benjamin, Annette & Adrian Brinton, Munoz Family/Shirley Elkington, Phil Frank, Michael Heyman, Claudia & Keith Kennedy, Hugh Laurence, The Lobo Family/Brandon Yates, Roxanne Sheridan/Gil Purcell, Elaine Squires, Rawley Tandy, Sausalito Presbyterian Church, and the SWC Memorial Scholarship.

In closing, all of us the SRF board and the students who can continue their higher education send you thanks with deep gratitude for your generosity.
